Excesses Abuses New Camping Grounds

Nervous Debility, Failing Energy, Physical Decay,

Organic Weakness, Loss of Capacity

Treatment is true and tried, but up-to-date. Young manbood is prone to weakness, and weakness, allied with ignorance of consequences, makes indiscretion and folly inevitable, surrounded as men are by temptations. This explains the great number of partially-wrecked constitutions among young and middle-aged men, the weakened vitality, shattered nerves, exhausted energies, the loss of that perfect strength and vigor which go to make the perfect man. It is power, vigor, strength, which alene make man admirable. It is the energy of strong vitality which makes him successful in whatever work or business he undertakes.

THE SONG OF THE CAMP

"The Banks of the Wabash" on the Potomac.

A SCINE OF SWEET SENT MENT

The Friendships of the Soldier Status of the Hospital Misunderstanding-The Good Ronds Question-Private Hodges' Funeral. Reeds of Virginia Troops.

Camp Alger was a great volume of sound between supper time and taps last night. The bands gave concerts, the mer sang in groups and crowds and here and there a wandering musician made melody for the few nickels he could collect.

A great chorus of several hundred weary troops sat around quarters at the 155th Indiana and sang "On the Banks of the Wabash Far Away," as it has seldom before been sung. The stacked rifles, backed by the white tents, made a circle for the lounging singers, while the whole picture was framed in a glorious wealth of foliage and drifting clouds. There were few in the great host of troops whose minds were not at "the Indiana home-stead," and the scene was really impres-

There is a strange, pitiful something in the ionely lines of these camped troops which makes the whole mass kin. Friendships are made in a moment and Friendships are made in a moment and little deeds-performed by one for the other which would seem strange in the routine of civilian life. The craving for fellowship and companionship goes out even to dumb animals, and it is strange to watch the devotion of some of the boys to their pets. Despised curs are worshipped almost as deities. Kittens, rats, chickens, turtles, birds, and even little pigs become a part of their owners and are a very important item in their. and are a very important item in their Petition for Divorce.

Wesley L. Carter today filed a petition for ab-solute divorce from his wife, Vina Carter, The appeal sets forth that the petitioner was married to the respondent by the Rev. John P. Cox at Ebenezer Church, in this city, en October 8, 1888, and that he has done all possible to provide for the said Vina Carter. Notwithstanding this, he says, his wife, without cause, left his bed and board several times, and now has completely deserted him.

Mrs. Dr. Starr Parsons, living at Ninth and E day on G. Street, between Sixth and Seventh Streets northwest, collided with car No. 54 of the Eckington and Soldiers' Home Railway. She was thrown violently upon the ground, but escaped serious injury. The bicycle, however, was badly damaged.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS.

Working for Harmony, and Hope to Win State Elections.

Philadelphia, June 14.-Many Democratic leaders, including both those of the State organization and their late factional opponents, have spoken in favor of nominating the strongest available candidate for governor, and making the fight on State issues, to the exclusion of national questions, except in the Congressional elections. Belief is expressed by local Democrats, irrespective of faction, that this course of campaign action will be favored by an overwhelming majority of the Altoona convention, and that both ticket and platform will be such as to ally the independent. In addition to talk among ex-Postmas-ter General Wanamaker's followers and other Republicans, to the effect that if the present satisfactory outlook for Al-toona shall become a reality, they will hope for the defeat of the William A. Stone ticket by the Democratic nominces, there are various personal movements of prominent Republicans from which are drawn inferences that enolicd the Seventh Illinois with twenty loaves of tobacco.

The Diamond Match Company has given mony. Among these occurences was a meeting between Mr. Wanamaker and Judge Gordon on Saturday, and an hour's Watering carts are being used on the talk between Secretary of the Common roads leading into camp and this keeps wealth Martin and Mr. Wanamaker yes terday. The friends of these gentlemen believe that the conferences related to the State fight.

Ex-Congressman Howard Mutchler of Northampton, who was one of the con-ferees with Col. Guffey in New York last week, came to this city yester-day. Mr. Mutchler, whose first choice for governor has been Judge Scott, Easton, and who has been one of the principal colleagues of Chairman Gar-man and Col. Guffey, said last evening: "I have no doubt that Judge Gordon will be nominated for governor. lieve that Col. Guffey will fa port in addition to the Democratic vote "Efforts are being made, with a good prospect of success, to harmonize the conflicting party elements in Philadel-phia, and I think that the progress in this direction will be far enough to have a good effect on the convention.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

Representative Bailey's Address at the Closing Exercises. Charlottesville, Va., June 14.-The final celebration exercises of the University of Virginia were held yesterday. At noon the annual address before the ton and Jefferson Literary Society was delivered by Hon. Joseph W. Bailey, member of Congress from Texas. C. W Miller, of Kentucky, and A. T. Stroud, of Norfolk, Va., presidents of their respective societies, presided. The splendid auditorium of the new academical building contained a large audience, despite the fact that a heavy rainstorm was prevailing at the hour for the address. Mr. Bailey appologized for attempting to speak without preparation. His speech was without preparation. His speech was received with almost continuous applause. It was a consideration of Mr. Jefferson's services to his country in the authorship of the statute of Virginia for religious liberty; the founding of a great university on lines absolutely new, and the framing of a greater charter of independence than was wrung from the barons at Runnymede. He took occasion to defend Jefferson's point of view in all of these

Care of Jordan, Marsh & Co.
Dear Sir—I had Catarrh for twenty years, and the last ten years (all of which time has been gassed in this great establishment) I suffered fearhally. It extended to my themat; the base of my tongue was badly affected. I constantly kept in my mouth cardamon seeks, or some such breath purifier. I could not sleep with my mouth closed. I began using "Hyomei" in December, 1823, and in two weeks I was entirely relieved—and now, after four months and no return of the disease, can say, permanently—cured. I sm going to ask the head of this firm, Mr. Eben
